Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 6-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a or e) as being anticipated by Uchikubo (U.S. Pat. 6,602,185) for the reasons set forth in numbered paragraph 6 of the previous Office Action, paper number 20060530.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed September 5, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Uchikubo does not disclose or suggest that the endoscope device is controlled remotely. However, in its broadest sense, any information (whether verbal or visual) sent from the remote operation room (76, Fig.13) to operation room (75) which instructs a user in the latter to change any aspect of the procedure, is in effect, remotely controlling the procedure (note col.2, lines 30-36 and col.8, line 66 to col.9, line 7 of Uchikubo '185). Even still, note that the controller (24, Fig.1) controls both the CCU (21) and power supply (11) via control signals (col.4, lines 55-56) which can input through interface (38a, Fig.3). Interface (38a) accepts control signals from the remote control apparatus (6, Fig.1) (col.6, lines 53-54). Therefore, Uchikubo indeed discloses remote control of controller (24) which controls both CCU (21) and surgical device (20).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

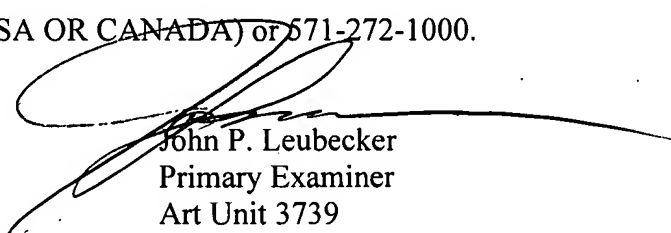

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
